

Crash! More strong trees lost their balance and fell to the ground like

_____. (simile).

While the sky had a tantrum, crying uncountable tears, the hunters

_____.
(explain what the hunters were doing).

My nostrils flared as I breathed in the overwhelming scent of

_____. (describe what you could smell).

My eyes watered up as I watched

_____. (describe what you could see).

My hands and feet could feel

_____. (describe what you could feel).

All around, the only noise I could hear was

_____.
_____.
_____. (describe what you could hear).

The _____ (sound, noise, people. Hunters, destruction) left an awful unexplainable taste in my mouth. I knew that my rainforest would never be the same again.

The monsters were _____ (verb) over my fragile environment, destroying the _____ (list of 3).

Crash! More strong trees lost their balance and fell to the ground like

While the sky had a tantrum, crying uncountable tears, the hunters.....

My nostrils flared as I breathed in the overwhelming scent of.....

My eyes watered up as I watched.....

My hands and feet could feel

All around, the only noise I could hear was.....

The monsters.....

The..... humans were.....

The diggers were.....