My Uncle Joe was driving home late one night when he picked up a pretty girl hitchhiking in a white dress. The girl was very nice and they have a good conversation. He drove her home and dropped her off at her house. The next day, he realized she left her sweater in his car. He decided to drop the sweater off at her house. When he rang the bell, an old lady answered the door. He tells her his story and she tells him he must be mistaken – her daughter died in a car accident after a night of dancing many years ago

Can I plan a sci-fi short story?

- plan out a story
- show understanding of a story mountain as a plan
- find useful vocabulary that will enhance your story

Today we are planning our short stories:

We need to make sure they have key elements to make them interesting:

- 1) A hook (beginning)
- 2) A gripping middle (middle)
- 3) A twist (end)

Science Fiction Story Mountain Planner

Can you help me use my plan to plan out a story I will write?

You are now going to think about some ideas about the shape your story will take.

Remember it is a 'short' story so you will have to make sure the events happen quite soon after another.

No using '2 months later' in this writing!
