

In the Enchanted Forest

I walk away from the world I know
To a forest where each thing can change
And where the floor is carpeted with moss so green.
It is here I feel magic
In the Enchanted Forest

I sit near a brook and a small waterfall
And listen to the world so new to me
I hear a coo of a dove
And a hoot of an owl and know
I am in a place of enchanted things
In the enchanted Forest

I open my eyes and see
A pair of eyes staring back at me.
I am not afraid for I know
I'm in the presence of a unicorn
In the enchanted forest

I get up and move away
But the unicorn follows me
I turn to see
She beckons me to ride atop and as I ride I know
I feel magic here
In the enchanted forest
