Explore: How memories are kept alive.

- what is memory.
- what do we remember.
- why it is important to remember.

Wilfrid Gordon McDonald Partridge

Mem Fox & Julie Vivas

Underneath the small sheet in front of you, write down why memories were important to Miss Nancy.

What can evoke a good memory?

a smell

a feeling

What can evoke a good memory?

a sound

Memories are powerful.

Write down a powerful and happy memory that will create a Patronus.

Draw the creature that it creates.

Underneath, write about why memories are important to us and others.

What do they help you do?
